

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING between the
ANAHEIM MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION, GENERAL EMPLOYEES and the
CITY OF ANAHEIM

The Anaheim Municipal Employees Association, General Employees (“AMEA”), and the City of Anaheim (“ANAHEIM”), herein referred to collectively as the “PARTIES” have met and conferred and reached an agreement on Article 56 – Uniforms and Hand Tools of the June 24, 2022 through July 3, 2025 Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”) between AMEA and ANAHEIM. The PARTIES agree to the following terms and conditions:

Effective March 9, 2023, Article 56.4 shall be eliminated, and no annual clothing allowance will be provided for employees in the Street Division, Public Works Department.

Further, Article 56.5 shall be amended as set forth below:

ANAHEIM agrees to provide eleven (11) complete sets of uniforms, including shirts and pants, for employees assigned to perform work in the areas of street, sewer and storm drain maintenance and sanitation within the Operations and Maintenance Division of the Public Works Department. The parties shall, upon mutual agreement, identify additional classifications and/or positions qualifying for the City-sponsored uniform program. Employees shall be required to wear uniforms while on duty.

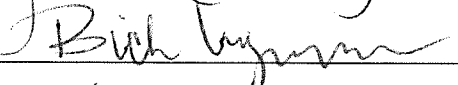

Uniform sets shall be laundered and maintained by ANAHEIM. Employees will be allowed to exchange shirts and pants on a one-for-one basis if soiled or damaged.

The remainder of the MOU between the AMEA and ANAHEIM shall not be affected hereby and shall remain in full force and effect.
